Gordon MacLean Joins
Canyon Acres Board of Directors

Anaheim Hills, Calif., March 9, 2009 – Canyon Acres Children and Family Services, a charity organization committed to providing homes, care, treatment and supportive services for abused, neglected and emotionally troubled children and their families, today announced that Gordon S. MacLean, CPA has joined its board of directors. MacLean is a partner at Windes & McClaughry Accountancy Corporation and is a 20-year veteran of KPMG LLP.

“The Canyon Acres board extends a very warm welcome to Gordon,” said Clete Menke, President of Canyon Acres. “Gordon is dedicated to helping children in need, and his outstanding professional track record will help us continue to achieve our mission of providing hope, love and care to the children who need it most.”

Prior to joining Windes & McClaughry as partner in 2007, MacLean spent 20 years with KPMG; he served as an Audit Partner for the last seven of them. His practice focus spans multiple industries and includes both public and private companies. His involvement has ranged from IPOs and secondary/follow-on offerings to public debt issuances, internal control attestation, mergers and acquisitions, debt and equity financing and consulting. He is a graduate of California State University at Fullerton.

“I am very excited to have joined the Canyon Acres board,” said Maclean. “I completely believe in the work the agency does and look forward to helping Canyon Acres achieve more of the success it is known for.”
