Amcor Sunclipse's Thomas A. Sarnecki Joins Canyon Acres Board of Directors

Anaheim Hills, Calif., December 10, 2008 – Canyon Acres Children and Family Services, a charity organization committed to providing homes, care, treatment and supportive services for abused, neglected and emotionally troubled children and their families, today announced that Thomas A. Sarnecki has joined its board of directors. Sarnecki is vice president, general counsel, human resources affairs for Amcor Sunclipse North America.

“Canyon Acres is very happy to welcome Tom to our board of directors,” said Clete Menke, President of Canyon Acres. “Tom has a distinguished record of public service and is a longtime friend of children. His leadership will enhance our overall organizational structure and help us achieve our vision to provide hope, love and safety to the children who need it most.”

Sarnecki has held his position with Sunclipse since 1997 and is responsible for companywide human resources, employment relations and legal compliance for the corporation's diverse operations in 12 states and in Mexico. He also serves as a global HR delegate for Sunclipse's parent company, Amcor Ltd., located in Melbourne, Australia.

Prior to Sunclipse Sarnecki was labor counsel and director of employment relations for ConAgra Foods in Fullerton. He has additional professional experience with Dart Industries, Frito-Lay and Johnson Controls. He is a graduate of John Carroll University and the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law.

“I am incredibly excited to help Canyon Acres continue to reach its goals,” said Sarnecki. “The Agency’s history of helping children in need is unsurpassed in Southern California and beyond, and I am honored to contribute my time and energy to help Canyon Acres continually deliver on its mission.”
