CANYON ACRES WELCOMES SEBASTIAN PAUL MUSCO TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Notable Philanthropist Continues Contributions to Children in Need

ANAHEIM HILLS, Calif., August. 08, 2006 -- CANYON ACRES CHILDREN AND FAMILY SERVICES, a charity organization committed to providing homes, care, treatment and supportive services for abused, neglected and emotionally troubled children and their families, announced the appointment of Sebastian Paul Musco, Founder and Chairman of Gemini Industries, Inc., to the Board of Directors.

"We are pleased to have such a distinguished community leader join the team," said Clete Menke, Executive Director of Canyon Acres. "Mr. Musco is known for his charitable work for Orange County's disadvantaged communities, and we look forward to working together to continue carrying out Canyon Acres' mission."

Celebrated as the catalyst for Gemini Industries' enormous success, Musco brings to the Board more than five decades of leadership expertise. As a member of the International Precious Metal Institute (IPMI), Musco was given the 2001 Distinguished Achievement Award and is the only person to have received every award given by the IPMI.

Musco also serves on the Board of Trustees for Chapman University, the Board of Directors of the Orange County Sheriff Advisory Council, Chairman of the Board of Opera Pacific, and is Managing Director of the Los Angeles Opera. He was also Vice President of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation and national vice president of the Muscular Dystrophy Association, by which he was named “Man of the Year” in 1998 for his charitable contributions.

Musco joins Canyon Acres as it celebrates its 25th Anniversary with the “Help Us Help Our Kids” campaign. The campaign proactively addresses rising costs and diminished government funding in efforts to prepare for the next 25 years.

“I am very excited to join Canyon Acres’ Board of Directors,” said Musco. “Canyon Acres provides critical services to Orange County’s most severely neglected children, and I look forward to helping the agency improve these children’s lives.”

ABOUT CANYON ACRES

Canyon Acres Children and Family Services is the only facility in Orange County or the surrounding counties serving the most severely abused and emotionally troubled children between the ages of 6-17. Since 1980, Canyon Acres has been providing the highest level of care, therapeutic treatment and most importantly a home, to children throughout Southern California who suffer from a variety of emotional and psychological disorders. Canyon Acres gives children nurturing, treatment, and opportunities that they need to grow up in safe, loving, and stable families.
