CANYON ACRES WELCOMES CARL NEISSER TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

ANAHEIM HILLS, Calif., Jun. 2007 -- CANYON ACRES CHILDREN AND FAMILY SERVICES, a charity organization committed to providing homes, care, treatment and supportive services for abused, neglected and emotionally troubled children and their families, today announced that Carl Neisser has joined its board of directors. Mr. Neisser is the President of The Neisser Company, Inc., a marketing and development consulting firm.

“Canyon Acres is very excited to have Neisser join its board,” said Clete Menke, executive director of Canyon Acres. “Mr. Neisser has a knack for rallying forces to achieve success—in both for-profit and nonprofit arenas.”

Mr. Neisser enjoys a number of key accomplishments, including the creation and management of a government contract group within a major commercial corporation; the formation of a powerful community group and successful strategic campaign leading to the exclusive right to build Irvine Hospital; and the turnaround of an electronic investment division via re-engineered products, the utilization of in-house marketing group and judicious attention to cost control.

Mr. Neisser is also a board member for the South Coast Repertory Theatre, the Newport Harbor Art Museum, and Arts Orange County. He is a graduate of Yale University.

“I am honored to join Canyon Acres’ board of directors,” said Neisser. “The agency has made a marked difference for the children and families it serves, and I am excited about contributing to the Canyon Acres cause.”

ABOUT CANYON ACRES

Canyon Acres Children and Family Services is the only facility in Orange County or the surrounding counties serving the most severely abused and emotionally troubled children between the ages of 6-17. Since 1980, Canyon Acres has been providing the highest level of care, therapeutic treatment and most importantly a home, to children throughout Southern California who suffer from a variety of emotional and psychological disorders. Canyon Acres gives children nurturing, treatment, and opportunities that they need to grow up in safe, loving, and stable families.
